Henry & Horne Supports Major Boys & Girls Clubs Fundraiser

For immediate release

Scottsdale—April 26, 2009— As one of the major underwriters, Henry & Horne, LLP helped sponsor The Taste of 2009 event at Kierland Commons in Scottsdale with proceeds benefiting ten Phoenix Boys and Girls clubhouses throughout the Valley.

The Taste, which began 35 years ago as a dinner party for Valley leaders, has grown into a huge wine and food tasting event. With over 50 restaurants participating, the taste has grown in attendance every year. This year over 6,000 people attended the event.

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix provides structured, comprehensive development programs for youth in grades K – 12th. Their focus is to provide quality after-school programs, under the supervision of a professional staff, that supplement and enhance their learning and nurturing environments. The mission of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix is to inspire and enable youth in the community, especially those faced with difficult and challenging circumstances, to realize their individual potential while learning responsible citizenship.
