Henry & Horne Employees Paint to Help Spread Kindness

For immediate release

Phoenix—September 22, 2016—Two dozen Henry & Horne team members and their families helped spread kindness by painting wind chimes for Ben's Bells.

The group painted more than 200 ceramic flowers, hearts and other pieces that will be used to build the wind chimes. Since the mission of Ben's Bells is to spread kindness, team members were also asked to write a kind note to give to a family member, co-worker, friend or stranger.

The only way to receive a Ben's Bell is to find one somewhere in the Valley. The organization puts them in schools, bus stops, parks and lots of other places throughout the various communities.
