Henry & Horne Holds Donation Drive, Volunteers for AZ Foster Families

For immediate release

Scottsdale—May 14, 2016—Ten Henry & Horne team members and their friends served foster families at an event held by Arizona's Children Association.

The group served food to attendees and also helped supervise various game stations at the Armenian Culture Center. The Firm also held a hygiene products donation drive benefitting Arizona's Children

Association. Team members donated more than 350 items.

The organization is one of the oldest and largest nonprofit child welfare and behavioral health agencies in Arizona. They partner with more than 800 foster families throughout Arizona to provide safe, loving homes for kids in need.
