Henry & Horne Admits McCollum, Nelson, Poppel to Partnership

For immediate release

Tempe—June 1, 2016—Henry & Horne is pleased to announce the admittance of Phillip R. McCollum, Jr., CPA, Melinda Nelson, CPA, and Jonathan Poppel, CPA, to the partnership, bringing the total number of partners at the Firm to 17.

McCollum joined Henry & Horne in October 2015, bringing 20 years of experience in accounting. He specializes in providing professional services to closely held businesses and individuals including compliance needs, tax consulting, transfer of sale and business, transfer of wealth, mergers and acquisitions and more. McCollum received his Bachelor of Science in Accountancy from Northern Illinois University and his Juris Doctor from Valparaiso University School of Law.

Nelson has been with Henry & Horne for eight years. She specializes in tax planning strategies and compliance involving closely held businesses and their owners as well as estate, gift and trust taxation. She has more than 25 years of experience in accounting and received her Bachelor of Science in Accounting and Finance from Iowa State University.

Poppel manages audit and review services as well as client relationships, serving a variety of industries including manufacturers, construction, distributors, restaurants and franchisors. He joined Henry & Horne in 2008 and has 14 years of experience in the accounting industry. Poppel received both his International Master of Business Administration and his Bachelor of Science in Accounting degrees from Central Connecticut State University.

“We are so proud to have Jonathan, Melinda and Phil as part of our partnership group. They have demonstrated professionalism, commitment and exceptional client service throughout their respective careers. They are all so deserving of this promotion,” said Co-Managing Partners Chuck Goodmiller and Chuck Inderieden.

All three new partners are based out of Henry & Horne’s Tempe office.
