Henry & Horne, LLP to Host Conference Focused on Nonprofit Financial Issues

For immediate release

Phoenix—January 1, 2016—Henry & Horne, LLP will hold its second all-day conference for Nonprofit Organizations on January 28, 2016 at the Phoenix Zoo.

The Valley nonprofit community faces big financial changes on the horizon. This year's conference will address that topic as well as other relevant issues such as fraud. Presentation topics include: An Informative View of the Phoenix Zoo, An Update on the BIG Nonprofit Reporting Changes that are Coming Soon, Can You Spot the Nonprofit Fraudster?, Changes to Federal Regulations Impacting Nonprofits Receiving Federal Dollars, Professional Fundraising Event Reporting & Analysis, and Can You Run a Nonprofit like a For-Profit? Coping with Unrelated Business Income. The conference is designed to benefit those in financial positions in the nonprofit industry.

"We are very excited about our second annual nonprofit conference. Our topics include information that is imperative for nonprofit professionals to know from a financial and accounting perspective. They're also interesting and relevant topics that should give our attendees great ideas to take back to their organizations for implementation or analyzation," said Colette Kamps, Partner-in-Charge of the Not-for-Profit Niche.

Space is limited. Registration is $55. The deadline to register is Tuesday, January 26. If you're interested in attending, click here to sign up.
