

Henry+Horne named to list of Best Accounting Firms to Work for

Henry+Horne was named as one of the 2017 Accounting Today's Best Accounting Firms to Work for. The honor is given to companies that have excelled in creating quality workplaces for employees.

The national survey and awards program is designed to identify, recognize and honor the best employers in the accounting industry, benefitting the industry's economy, workforce and businesses. Only 100 companies in the entire country make the list.

Receiving such a prestigious honor is important to Henry+Horne because the Firm believes that happy workers equal a successful business practice. If employees are happy, then they will exceed the expectations of those around them. Culture is a top priority at Henry+Horne, and the leadership has spent decades building and maintaining an atmosphere that places value on employees.

"For more than 50 years, Henry+Horne has built and cultivated the Firm's culture and we believe it sets us apart from the thousands of other accounting firms. I'm so proud of our team members who put forth so much effort to make us what we are – from the culture to the exceptional client service. This award belongs to them," said Chuck Inderieden, Co-Managing Partner.

The process to determine the Best Accounting Firms to Work for consists of a two-part survey. The first part evaluates nominated companies' workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics. This part is worth approximately 25% of the total evaluation. The second part of the survey measures employee experience. Employees fill out a questionnaire that is worth approximately 75% of the total evaluation. The combined scores determine the top companies and the final ranking.
