Henry+Horne wins four national marketing achievement awards

Las Vegas—June 14, 2017— Henry+Horne's Marketing Department won four Marketing Achievement Awards from the Association for Accounting Marketing (AAM).

The Firm's wins include Integrated Branding Programs Budget below $100,000 for the rebrand Henry+Horne did in 2016; Website Budget between $10,000 and $24,999 for the Firm's updated website as part of the rebrand effort; Collateral and Content Marketing: Blogs which are part of the new website; and Marketing and PR Campaigns: Non-Technical Published and Feature Articles for an article on Henry+Horne's community service efforts which appeared in AZ CPA Magazine.

AAM award winners are recognized for the accomplishment of a specific goal or objective, executing a project strategically and producing measurable results.

Henry+Horne is proud of the Marketing Department, which has now won eight AAM Marketing Achievement Awards.
