Bolt packs meals at Feed My Starving Children

Mesa—March 28, 2017— Elizabeth Bolt, Marketing + Communications Coordinator, teamed up with friends to pack meals for Feed My Starving Children and helped chaperone a community service event for students from Williams Field High School.

The group packed meals, stocked ingredients, supplied materials for volunteer tables and cleaned up. They helped pack more than 21,000 meals in one hour that will feed 60 children in the Philippines for a year.

Feed My Starving Children has shipped millions of meals to help feed kids in more than 80 countries.
