Henry+Horne recognized for women in leadership roles

Tempe—September 29, 2017— Henry+Horne has been recognized by Inside Public Accounting (IPA) for women in leadership roles and making the development, advancement and retention of women a priority.

Henry+Horne's Partner Group is 39% female. Each year, IPA conducts an accounting industry benchmarking survey and uncovers trends to recognize firms that are doing things differently and changing the profession for the better. IPA said the honor is noteworthy, as the accounting profession has long struggled with increasing the number of women in its partnership ranks, despite the fact that more than half of the accounting workforce is made up of women.

Henry+Horne also ranked among the Top 200 Firms by IPA, at number 128 in the nation.
