Henry+Horne team volunteers at after school program

Chandler—August 30, 2018— More than a dozen Henry+Horne team members volunteered at Improving Chandler Area Neighborhoods (ICAN), an after-school program that serves underprivileged youth.

The team helped more than 160 kids with craft projects including building chairs out of magazines and newspapers and making rain clouds. The Firm also donated arts and crafts materials.

ICAN programs help young people achieve personal and academic success while also offering resources for the whole family such as parenting classes and substance abuse education.
