Henry+Horne Restaurant University Roundtable now registering

Tempe—May 6, 2021— The Henry+Horne restaurant niche is moderating a series of roundtable discussions for restauranteurs in Colorado and Arizona May 19 and 20. It's been a stressful year for restaurant owners. To offset some of the pandemic side effects that disproportionately affected the restaurant industry, the federal government passed an array of programs and tax breaks. To help restauranteurs sort through it all, Henry+Horne Partner Brian Campbell, CPA and Austin Bradley, CPA, will discuss the various government packages and tax topics that have cropped up this year. A roundtable discussion will follow. Participants will discuss their experiences and questions regarding the Paycheck Protection Program and what's deductible, changes to carryback guidance, the extension of the Employee Retention Credit, the Restaurant Revitalization Fund and more.
