Henry+Horne welcomes slate of new partners/principals

Tempe – June 1, 2021- Henry+Horne is thrilled to announce the advancement of Daniel A. Mace, CPA and Matt Waller, CPA to the partnership and Jennifer A. Ward as Principal.

Dan Mace works with individuals and medium to large-sized businesses in both tax compliance and planning. He also assists individuals with retirement transitions, planning for other financial life changes and international real estate transactions (mainly assisting Canadians with ITIN applications and applications for reduced withholding on FIRPTA related transactions). He is known for having a knack for translating tax into easily understood English. He takes the time to explain to his clients the tax and accounting processes and documents in ways they can fully understand. He's also known for being the go-to person for technology and software questions.

Dan joined Henry+Horne in 1998 after graduating from Arizona State University with his Bachelor of Science in Accountancy.

Matt Waller specializes in providing assurance services to construction, real estate and distribution clients along with experience in group risk insurance pools. He's known for his extensive knowledge of accounting matters for those industries and helps clients with consulting and due diligence projects.

Matt joined Henry+Horne in 2016. He received his Post Baccalaureate Certificate in Accounting from Arizona State University – West and his Bachelor of Science in Finance from Arizona State University.

Jennifer Ward is known for her expert handling of estate and gift tax returns. She specializes in the taxation of estates, gifts, trusts and individuals. She brings experience in personal financial services consulting, working with high-net-worth individuals and executives with income, estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer tax matters as well as financial planning needs.

Jennifer joined Henry+Horne in 2007. She graduated from Wayne State University in Detroit with her Master's in Tax Law and received her Juris Doctor from Cumberland School of Law in Birmingham. Jennifer also graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt University with her Bachelor of Arts in French.

"We are pleased to welcome Dan and Matt into the partnership group, and Jennifer as principal. Their experience and commitment to serving their clients and the Firm have made them a great addition. Their goals and vision will help drive the Firm into the future. We are thrilled to have them," said Co-Managing Partners Chuck Goodmiller and Chuck Inderieden.
