Henry+Horne raises money for domestic violence crisis support service

Tempe—December 30, 2020— Henry+Horne was thrilled to have donated over $6,590 to Against Abuse this holiday season to aid them in their mission to provide safe secure housing for those suffering from domestic violence.

Against Abuse is an amazing organization providing service, support and education to all who experienced the effects of family dysfunction and/or violence, past and present. They have been a great friend to the Firm for several years and Henry+Horne is very excited to be able to help them this year.
