Henry+Horne announces new construction blog

Tempe—March 19, 2021— Henry+Horne launched the new Your Financial Blueprint construction blog this month, adding to a slate of blog offerings.

Your Financial Blueprint offers construction finance and accounting news geared towards assisting construction accounting professionals with accounting, auditing, compliance and industry related issues. Posts in the construction blog are written by Henry+Horne construction specialists who bring more than 140 years' combined experience. They are heavily involved in construction organizations and have written books, offer industry classes on a national level that often sell out and more. Their affiliations include the American Subcontractors Association, Arizona Builders Alliance, the Construction Financial Management Association and the Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors' National Association.

The construction blog is one of many micro-targeted Henry+Horne blogs. Henry+Horne also offers targeted blogs on tax, accounting, litigation and valuation, restaurant tax and accounting, employee benefits, government tax and accounting and nonprofit tax and accounting.
