Henry+Horne volunteers pack boxes of food for Feed My Starving Children

Tempe – August 20, 2021- Henry+Horne employees spent the afternoon volunteering at Feed My Starving Children for the firm’s August community service event.

A group of 19 employees packed 84 boxes of food, supplying 5,184 meals for kids in the Philippines. In two hours Henry+Horne volunteers packed enough food to feed 49 children for an entire year.

Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) believes hope starts with food. As a Christian nonprofit, FMSC is dedicated to seeing every child whole in body and spirit. FMSC works with food distribution partners that stay with communities for the long haul, empowering them to move from relief to development.

FMSC meals are developed by food science and nutrition professionals to supplement nutritional needs and reduce problems with malnutrition. Nutrition allows children to grow, thrive and develop to their full potential.
